1 Introduction

[Background on the topic]

1. In the first section we will describe the process toward which the results of the project were obtained.
2. The section presents the results we obtained with...

The introduction should state clearly why the study was started and give a relatively short and essential overview of the topic you are exploring. References to previous works can be made here.

The introduction should not contain the conclusions. At the end of the introduction the outline of the paper may be described.

2 Conclusions

Here you summarize the essential aspects and findings of your work and analysis.

Finally, remember to include a section with the bibliography. It is very important to cite the sources you used for your study and for writing the report.
